What's the next step?

Complete this Host Family Application and return it to Annie Heitzmann, Hosting Coordinator, at Providence Academy. Your application will be reviewed and your participation will be confirmed as soon as possible.

Closer to the student's arrival, you will receive detailed information about the student you will host. Madame Heitzmann will provide a meeting for all host families the first week in August. During this meeting, families will get to know one another and learn useful tools to help prepare for the hosting experience.
