

Providence Academy

First Grade

Summer Reading

~2020~

Books to enjoy as a family! Read aloud daily with your child! It's good for all! These titles are not required, but are a great selection to help prepare your child for First Grade.

Aesop Fables

Cinderella--any version/author

The First Dog by Jan Brett

Jack and the Beanstalk--any version/author

Little Red Riding Hood – any version of this story; have fun!

Mufaro's Beautiful Daughters, by John Steptoe

Stone Soup--any version/author

Thumbelina, by Amy Ehrlich

Winnie the Pooh (any stories)

To be read-aloud or independently:

Easy to Read – Henry and Mudge series

Step into Reading –search by interest, reading level, characters and genre: stepintoreading.com/book-finder

National Geographic Readers – Animal Books for Beginning Readers

American Museum of Natural History Readers – Level 1 Books

DK Readers – Level 1 Books

Children's Bible Stories:

The Catholic Bible for Children by Ignatius Press

The New Catholic Picture Bible by Catholic Book Publishing